Porto And The Douro Valley

An indulgent weekend of food and wine tasting

Portugal is best known for its world class port, yet it also produces some of Europe's best quality wines. Porto is the home of port whilst the Douro Valley hosts some of Portugal's top class vineyards and wine makers. You'll visit both, taste a variety of port and wine styles from some of the best quality producers and enjoy the stunning scenery along the way.

You'll also find fantastic food in the Douro. On this tour we include some great local food and one very special lunch in a famous riverside restaurant. Each evening you'll have free time to explore, taste and dine at your own pace.
